

FEES

Fees are costs that are assessed for specified products or services related to a program of study, such as instructional costs or materials. Fees are also assessed for products or services that are available to students of MacEwan University.

Application Fees

An application fee of $110 per application is required. For most programs, applicants can select a second-choice program within the same application.

The fee must be paid at the time the application is submitted. Application fees are non-refundable and cannot be applied toward tuition.

Admission Confirmation Deposit

To guarantee a position in a program, applicants must accept the Offer of Admission by paying the Admission Confirmation Deposit on or before the acceptance deadline stated in myStudentSystem (https:// www.macewan.ca/apply-enrol/using-mystudentsystem/) and their Offer of Admission letter. If students do not pay their admission confirmation deposit by the deadline indicated in their offer letter or myStudentSystem, their admission offer will be withdrawn. These funds are applied towards tuition.

All cheques, money orders, and drafts must have all of the following imprints by the bank:

- Bank transit/swift number
- Bank account number
- Branch number
- Cheque, money order or draft number

The university does not accept post-dated cheques.

For Canadian applicants, the most convenient method to pay a program deposit may be online.

Not applicable for English as an Additional Language, University Preparation and Foundation students.

SAMU Membership Fees

The SAMU General Membership Fee and the Special SAMU Membership Fee are used to fund SAMU-led initiatives and student resources. These fees also support SAMU's advocacy work with MacEwan University and all levels of government.

Students will only be charged one of the SAMU Membership Fees depending on their current program of study.

SAMU Building Levy

The SAMU Building Levy is charged to all students who are registered for one credit or more in a single term. This levy is used to repay the SAMU Building's mortgage and any required maintenance costs.

U-Pass Fee

This fee is assessed each term (Fall, Winter and Spring/Summer) to all students who are enrolled in an on-campus program and registered in at least one credit that is on campus. The Universal Transit Pass (U-Pass) provides students with unlimited usage of regular transit services (this excludes special events, contracted and charter services).

SAMU administers the U-Pass. For more information regarding pick-up, service areas, Terms and Regulations and opt-outs please visit <https://samu.ca/student-resources/academic-and-financial-support/u-pass> (<https://samu.ca/student-resources/academic-and-financial-support/u-pass/>).

Health Care Benefit and Dental Benefit Fees

Mandatory Health Care Benefit and Dental Benefit Fees are charged to all full-time and part-time students. Any student with proof of alternate coverage for supplemental health care and/or dental care may opt-out of these plans prior to the advertised deadline date by contacting the plan administrator.

For more information about eligibility, policy content, family add-on, opt-out, and current network dental list visit <https://samu.ca/student-resources/health-wellness/insurance> (<https://samu.ca/student-resources/health-wellness/insurance/>).

MyLegalPlan Fee

A supplemental legal assistance fee is charged to all full-time and part-time students as part of the enrolment process. MyLegalPlan is built to address student concerns around the anxieties and financial pressures of pursuing legal action. MyLegalPlan is designed to ensure that students have a resource that provides considerable legal coverage and an easily accessible legal network of qualified and experienced lawyers from across the country.

For more information about eligibility, policy content, and current network visit <https://samu.ca/student-resources/health-wellness/insurance> (<https://samu.ca/student-resources/health-wellness/insurance/>).
