

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to MacEwan University!

We are delighted that you have chosen to pursue your undergraduate education within our vibrant university community in the heart of downtown Edmonton.

At MacEwan, we are committed to Teaching Greatness. The faculty who shape your experience in the classroom are not only experts and leaders in their fields; they also care about your success. Teaching Greatness isn't just about the people who teach. It's also about the people who learn. It's about helping you discover your greatness so you can follow your dreams and create the future you envision for yourself.

Regardless of which of our 65 degree, diploma or certificate programs you choose, the relationships you develop as you work towards your goal will enhance your time at MacEwan. I hope you'll take full advantage of the MacEwan experience and seek opportunities to make valuable connections with faculty, staff and fellow students. Join a student group, attend events, explore our services, participate in intramural sports, volunteer and pursue real-world learning experiences.

Whatever path you choose, our MacEwan community has a lot to offer. Get ready for an incredible university experience. We're so glad you're here.
