

POLICE STUDIES DIPLOMA

With rapid societal change and evolving technology, there is a need for police officers dedicated to the community, to problem solving and to making a difference. Policing in the 21st century requires a broad base of knowledge and skill. This challenging and rewarding two-year diploma provides potential police officers with knowledge and skills in leadership techniques, policing, criminalistics, investigative techniques, criminology, law, psychology, sociology and human relations.

The diploma consists of 61 credits and can be completed through a full-time day program or part-time evening studies. The full-time day program is completed over two years, with one intake in the Fall term. Part-time evening studies can be completed over a three-year period or longer, with one intake in the Fall term.

Admission to the program is competitive and is subject to a quota. The competitive admission average may be considerably higher than the posted minimum.

Career Potential

Graduates from Police Studies may gain employment with the RCMP, municipal police services (e.g. Edmonton Police Service, Calgary Police Service) across Canada, the CN Police, Sheriff's Department and the Canadian Forces Military Police. Graduates must apply directly to a police service and meet its minimum standards.

Transferability

Internal Opportunities

MacEwan University is committed to providing bridging and laddering opportunities to certificate and diploma graduates. Graduates of this diploma may be granted up to 60 credits to MacEwan University's Bachelor of Applied Human Services degree and up to 57 credits to the Bachelor of Arts degree. Students are advised to consult a program advisor for specific admission requirements.

External Opportunities

All courses completed for the Police and Investigations, Police Studies Major diploma are credit courses and may be transferable individually toward further study at other Alberta institutions. Students presenting a completed diploma in this program may be eligible for a block transfer to other Alberta institutions. For current, detailed information on individual course and diploma transferability, refer to the Learner Pathways System at www.transferalberta.ca (<http://www.transferalberta.ca>) or contact the receiving institution directly.

Students presenting a completed diploma in the program are eligible to block transfer to a number of colleges and universities outside of Alberta:

- Royal Roads University (British Columbia): 60 credits (two year) towards a Bachelor of Arts in Justice Studies
- Justice Institute of British Columbia (British Columbia): 60 credits (two years) towards a Bachelor of Law Enforcement Studies

Category of Admission

Applicants may be admitted to the following:

Regular Admission
