

MUSIC THEATRE PERFORMANCE – BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS

Overview

MacEwan University is home to one of Canada's leading triple-threat training programs in musical theatre performance. Students train in world-class theatre facilities at Allard Hall alongside peers who share their passion for performance. In the Music Theatre Performance major, students explore their authentic artistic voice in a learning environment that encourages creative risk-taking and celebrates diversity. Students showcase their talents in smash-hit Broadway musicals and cutting-edge contemporary plays for public audiences. By the end of this four-year experience, students will be set up for success with practical skills and professional connections.

The Bachelor of Fine Arts

Faculty of Fine Arts and Communications

MacEwan.ca/BFA (<https://www.macewan.ca/academics/programs/bachelor-of-fine-arts/>)

MacEwan University's new Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) with four distinct majors—Arts and Cultural Management, Studio Arts, Music Theatre Performance, and Theatre Production—offers students the opportunity to complete a BFA in a distinct discipline while studying closely with students in other complementary fine arts and communications disciplines. The curriculum explores the interdependent and interdisciplinary nature of contemporary art and the diverse spaces within which artists work.

The BFA provides depth in one of four disciplines while also incorporating breadth through multi- and interdisciplinary studies. All students take several interdisciplinary courses, like The Arts in Culture and First Peoples and the Arts and can also choose from a range of electives in the social sciences and business. This degree responds to the changing needs of the creative and cultural industries and students graduate with practical management skills and a depth of knowledge, skill, and expertise in their chosen discipline.

Degree RegulationsProgression of Studies

Students are responsible for ensuring they meet the prerequisite and co-requisite requirements for all courses.

Junior- and Senior-Level Courses

Courses numbered from 100 to 199 are considered junior level, and courses numbered from 200 to 499 are considered senior level.

Senior-Level Coursework Requirements

A minimum of 72 credits of the total 120 program credits must be at the senior level. Additional courses at the 100-level will be declared extra to the 120 credits required to complete the degree and will not be counted toward fulfillment of graduation requirements.

English, Option and Elective Requirements

Students must review their major area Program of Study to ensure that they are familiar with the major requirements as well as the English, Options and Electives (and required number of senior-level credits) required for successful completion of their degree. Periodic meetings with an Academic Advisor are strongly recommended.

Residency Requirements

Students must complete 50% of the total credit requirements for the BFA at MacEwan University, as governed by Academic Graduation Procedure (https://www.macewan.ca/c/policies/graduation_procedure.pdf).

Graduation Grade Point Average

Students must achieve and maintain a minimum Graduation Grade Point Average of 2.00 on the 4.00 scale.

Declaring Your Major

Applicants must declare their major when applying to the BFA. A second-choice option may also be declared at that time.

Changing from one Major to another BFA Major

Students who wish to change their major area of study must reapply to the BFA before the next published application deadline and indicate the new major to which they are applying. In order to be considered for a different major, applicants must be able to fulfill the other admission requirements for that major. See the Admission Criteria for more information on specific requirements for each major.

Work Integrated Learning

Work Integrated Learning opportunities are threaded throughout the Bachelor of Fine Arts program and provide students with important skills, creative industry knowledge and practical experience to succeed in their chosen field of study. To learn more about Work Integrated Learning opportunities for a particular major, please see the Program of Study.

Students completing their field placement courses in the Arts and Cultural Management major must comply with the Academic Policy Work Integrated Learning (https://www.macewan.ca/c/policies/work_integrated_learning.pdf). The University will facilitate the assignment of students in work placements; however, students must take responsibility for securing an acceptable placement and must work collaboratively with a university supervisor before and during their placement. Students are required to comply with any employer policies, including, but not limited to: confidentiality, hours of work, intellectual property rights and privacy protection.

Diploma Requirements

Students are eligible for a diploma after the completion of 60 credits as specified by the Program of Study in each major. In the Arts and Cultural Management major, that declaration must occur by the add/drop date at the beginning of their second year of study in order for arrangements to be made for the student to complete their required field placement. Failure to declare this intention will result in a delay in obtaining the diploma.

In the three other majors, declaration must occur by the graduation deadline of the year in which they wish to exit with a diploma.
